

Brought to you by Community Partners:

You are invited

When?

September 14, 2011- 12:30 to 4 pm

Why?

“An Organizational Framework”

Developing an effective continuum of clinical services for people who live with dual diagnosis in the East Region, Through the lens of the S.T.A.R.T Services Model

What?

Focus is (3) complex case consultations using the S.T.A.R.T. model

Who?

Target audience is anyone who supports individuals whom live with a dual diagnosis, and require clinical services. The Videoconferencing sites will be Viewing the consults by Dr. Joan Beasley to representatives of the community planning tables on situations that have been left unresolved

Where? / How?

Please Book you videoconference site by contacting Peter Fowler Eastern CNSC
Videoconferencing sites Coordinator at: pete.fowler@ongwanada.com

Guest speaker for the day is Dr Joan Beasley PHD
Research Associate Professor University of New Hampshire Institute on Disability.

Joan will be presenting on the Start Services Model: <http://www.thenadd.org/cgi-bin/checkmember.pl?page=pages/membership/bulletins/v6n3a3>