

We Give 3 Important Workshops

Hear My Voice, Respect My Choice

A workshop for people labelled with intellectual disabilities.

To learn about their legal rights in an accessible and engaging way.

Who's Voice Is it Anyway?

For staff

A workshop on decision-making, consent and capacity for Developmental Services Agency Staff, Board members, and Management.

Everyone's Voice

A Rights Workshop for family members

A workshop for family members to learn about the rights of their family member in an interactive session.

Respecting Rights is a project of ARCH. It is focused on rights for people labelled with intellectual disabilities. Self-advocates, lawyers and advocacy staff work together on rights issues in Ontario. Respecting Rights is proud to work in partnership with People First of Ontario.

Book a Workshop:

http://www.archdisabilitylaw.ca/Respecting\_Rights\_Committee\_Workshops

Email Sue Hutton: huttons@lao.on.ca

Phone: 416-482-8255 X 2227

Tel. Toll-free: 1-866-482-2724

TTY: 416-482-1254

TTY Toll-free: 1-866-482-2728

Rights Education Workshops

For People Labelled with Intellectual Disabilities & their Support Networks

Hear My Voice, Respect My Choice!

For People Labelled with Intellectual Disabilities

This workshop for people labelled with intellectual disabilities is offered by a volunteer Respecting Rights self advocate, rights advocacy staff and a lawyer from ARCH Disability Law Centre.

There are role plays, interactive activities and a discussion circle. Staff are welcome to attend with anyone who needs support.

The workshop is 2 hours long.

We keep in touch after the workshop to answer any questions.

Paul and Shineeca lead a group

Who's Voice Is it Anyway?

For Direct Services Staff, Boards of Directors & Management

This workshop for developmental services staff is offered by a volunteer Respecting Rights self advocate, rights advocacy staff and a lawyer from ARCH Disability Law Centre. The workshop covers decision-making and legal rights for people labelled with intellectual disabilities in the agency setting. Staff come away with an understanding of the legal rights of persons labelled with intellectual disability.

The workshop is 2 hours long.

Peter Park leads a circle

Everyone's Voice For Family Members

This workshop for families is offered by a volunteer Respecting Rights self advocate, rights advocacy staff and a lawyer from ARCH Disability Law Centre. The workshop covers decision-making and legal rights for persons labelled with intellectual disabilities. It is specifically for family members.

The workshop is 2 hours long.

ARCH lawyer Luke presenting